

THE CHRISTIAN MENTORING AND TRANSITION (CMAT) PROGRAM

If you are a Christian woman interested in showing the love of Jesus, according to St. Matthew 25:34-40, to a woman whom Jesus described as “overlooked or ignored”, then the Christian Mentoring and Transition (CMAT) Program Ministry is for you.

CMAT Mentors point women to Jesus as we visit and/or write an incarcerated or homeless woman once a month while she is a resident at the Maryland Correctional Institution for Women (MCIW) in Jessup, Maryland, or at the Marian House in Baltimore, Maryland.

Join us and become a part of the solution to the cycle of incarceration or homelessness that destroys families and communities. CMAT Basic Mentoring Training will teach you the why’s and how’s for mentoring women who are incarcerated or homeless and assisting them and their children as they transition to freedom.

WHERE: Virtual
